Volume IV Issue V

May 2017

JESUS IS ALIVE!

We have celebrated the sacrifice of our Lord Jesus Christ on the cross, and all for our sins, but also jointly the victory over death with his resurrection. The salvation of the whole world was accomplished on the cross and confirmed in the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The good news is that Jesus walks with us and we are invited to celebrate at all times and in all circumstances. That is why my brothers and sisters of this great family at Millian Memorial, I invite you to celebrate the day when God is guiding us.

1. Thank God for all the people involved in the celebration of Holy Week, my staff always so committed, but in a special way the work done by Roberto Villeda, who despite the short time worked brilliantly. Thank God for a great celebration.

2. We have a new director in our Preschool in the person of Margaret Jackson, hereby we warmly welcome the team at Millian Memorial, UMC. We will have the opportunity to welcome you soon, and likewise appreciate the excellent work that Emma Hintz performed with us the time we worked together.

3. We also have to celebrate that we have our Strategic Plan, which includes a new vision and mission. So brothers and sisters, the best way to celebrate this great achievement is to pray constantly so that we can work together in this effort.

4. Precisely according to this Strategic Plan:

A. You can check our new website, which is still under construction, but you can check the calendars (2) we use in the church, as well as a copy of the Strategic Plan.

B. After a long process, the time has come for us to move from three Worship Services that we currently have to have only two, one in English at 10:00 in the morning and the other in Spanish at 12:30. Two years ago we began his change-first with a single service on the first Sunday of the month where the three services met to worship God. Last year I extended this experience to special Services and holidays so we could all celebrate together. From Sunday, June 18, we will officially start with these two services (one in English and one in Spanish). Just be ready for this transition that we started two years ago I have asked Christian Education and the Sunday School team to work together on finding the way to maintain the assistance we currently have on Sundays (20-25 children)

My brothers and sisters of the great family at Millian Memorial UMC, this is only a small proof of all that God is doing with us, an unequivocal proof that Jesus lives and walks among us.

Finally, I invite you to pray on this day when Jesus walks with us and we rejoice in everything, especially pray for the situation of the United Methodist Church, which is the Church of our Lord, so that his will that is perfect is fulfilled.

Let us continue walking together on this journey, where the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ is real, the power of the Holy Spirit guides us, and the love of God is unquestionable.

Your pastor who loves you dearly!

Rev. Dr. Miguel Balderas

PRESCHOOL

The preschool is pleased to introduce Margaret Jackson as the incoming Preschool Director for the 2017-2018 school year. Margaret is joining Millian with 20 years of experience in education with the last ten years being focused on preschools and Early Childhood Education. She has a BA in Sociology and an MA in Education. Margaret is a native Washingtonian who loves to travel and has been all over the world. Her most recent trips have been to Colombia and Tanzania (where she volunteered to teach at an orphanage). In addition to traveling, Margaret enjoys reading and learning various forms of dance. Margaret has the talent and experience to grow the preschool program. The staff and families are looking forward to her leadership. Over the past several weeks, Millian Methodist Preschool has been home to caterpillars turning into butterflies, polliwogs turning into tree frogs and 2 baby chicks. The children have been thrilled to observe and report on these critters in the classrooms. We are looking forward to our Preschool Spring Concert. Everyone is invited to come and hear the children sing on Monday, May 22nd at 9:45am in the Church Sanctuary. We will have our end of the year picnics and the school year ends on Friday, May 26th. It has gone by so quickly!

Why Should We Show Mercy?

By Rick Warren

“Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful” (Luke 6:36 NIV).

No characteristic describes God more fully than mercy. It's the first trait that God uses to describe himself in Scripture. It's also an important characteristic for any serious follower of Jesus to develop. If it's such a core part of who God is, it's got to be essential for us.

But what should motivate us to show mercy to people in our lives?

I. God is merciful.

Jesus said,

“Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful” (Luke 6:36 NIV).

Before you judge others for their sins and failures, remember how many times God has forgiven you. When it seems inconvenient to help somebody in need, stop and remember how God has comforted you when you were hurting. When you think about those people who try your patience, stop and remember how patient God has been with you. And when you feel like getting even with somebody who has been unkind or unfair to you, stop and remember how kind God was to you when you were his enemy (see Romans 5:10).

2. I need mercy every day.

I can't expect to be perfect from now until the time I die, so I'm going to need more mercy. The Bible says, “No mercy will be shown to those who show no mercy to others” (James 2:13a GW). I need God's forgiveness, kindness, patience, and help every day of my life. God says you get what you give.

Forgiveness and mercy are a two-way street.

3. Mercy makes me happy.

Jesus said,

“Happy are those who are merciful to others” (Matthew 5:7a GNT).

Doing acts of mercy gets me out of myself. It gets my focus off of me and onto other people. And that produces happiness. In fact, a tremendous way to treat depression is through acts of mercy.

As you give your life away, happiness begins to come back to you, and the clouds of depression begin to lift and blow away.

Millian has a unique opportunity for you to be shown mercy, and also to learn how to show mercy. You can be shown mercy by establishing a relationship with a Stephen Minister. You can also learn how to show mercy to others by becoming a Stephen Minister. A Stephen Ministry class will start in September and run through February 2018. Please consider taking advantage of this opportunity to become one of our Stephen Ministers and even possibly a Stephen Leader.

Please prayerfully consider these opportunities in the next few months. Please speak with a Stephen Leader for more details. Speak with Linda Stathoplos, Jann Dalrymple, Marguerite Eimer or Dawn Kelley in the next few months to see how mercy will fit in to His plan for your life.

OUTREACH NEWS

2ND SATURDAY- April. MedStar

Montgomery nurse, Colleen McCoy and Diary Marroquin, Community Benefit Coordinator screened and counseled for cholesterol, hypertension and glucose. Participants also were given flyers for a free MedStar Montgomery diabetes workshop in Spanish at Harmony Hills Elementary School.

COMMUNITY MINISTRIES. Gladys Vargas, Kaseman Clinic, Ana Caceres and Gloria Rocha with the Latino Health Initiative provided participants with educational information.

SSL HOURS. Five youth from Argyle and Parkland Middle Schools made rabbit headbands and promoted the Easter Egg Roll with children. Extra headbands were given to Sunday School children.

FREE CLOTHING CLOSET coordinated by Luisa Montano and Barbara Lo.

Food Pantry Maria Velasco and the Linkages Coordinator from Harmony Hills provided translation and checked-in food pantry participants. 54 families received food bags feeding 212 persons; 121 adults and 91 children. Also, earning SSL Hours and special thanks to Jorge, Miguel, Jose, Sebastian and Tim for lugging food from the pantry to the Chapel Room and from the Chapel Room to the pantry due to the elevator outage. An awesome task of dedication and love.

EASTER EGG ROLL

THANK YOU for the eggs and candy donated for the Easter Egg Roll. The rain canceled the egg hunt, but didn't dampen the enthusiasm of the children. The children received eggs and participated in 12 different stations for crafts and activities. A team of 19 middle and high school youth (received SSL hours) and 13 adult volunteers provided leadership for the Easter Egg Roll plus a team of youth at Parkland Middle School Linkages Program with Danielle Alvarado Davis made 150 paper bag baskets. Again, we thank you for the abundance of candy and eggs you provided.

Our sincere gratitude is extended to the adult volunteers who provided leadership for the Egg Roll: Danielle Alvarado-Davis, Roger Arnold, Bambi Blackwell, Janet Coffelt, Patricia Daugherty, Helen Doman, Kelly Hernandez, Barbara Lo, George Anna and Phillip Lunking, Luisa Montano, Lillian Stough and Edith Williams.

SMART SACKS under the leadership of Nancy Gray provided meals for the weekend for 92 families at Wheaton Woods Elementary School.

Thanks to the program for providing food also the week that school was closed.

MUM's continue to provide food for the community monthly. The April 9 outreach provided food for 23 families. On May 13, extra food will be available to food pantries at Newport Middle School.

Food scarcity is a serious problem in Montgomery County. The county is embarking an extensive 5-year plan to address the problem. This team effort will make a difference on the severity of food scarcity.

COMMUNITY

PARTNERS under the leadership of Marguerite Eimer also is concerned with food scarcity. Three other churches – St. Matthew's, Glenmont and Hughes have ongoing programs. The group's future plans include a broader outreach that will be addressed later. The group is planning a June program that will provide wholesome activities for elementary children during the summer. Community Partners meet the second Tuesday, 10:00 a.m. monthly in the Chapel Room. Please join the group to address community concerns.

AFRICA UNIVERSITY SUNDAY is May 7. We will join the celebration for the 25th anniversary of the University.

 Rev. Irene Pierce a board member of the university will speak on the theme, "Africa University, Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow". Please join the event by wearing your finest African attire and plan to make a generous donation to support African University. More information coming soon.

FRESH BREAD & SPIRITUAL NOURISHMENT will meet Saturday, May 20 at 10:00 a.m. This small group includes wide spectra of women and men from Millian, and the community. The group will make a seasonal bread, have a short bible study, sample the finished product with tea, shape and take their finished product home to bake. Call Edith Williams for additional information.

SENIORS NEWS

The Senior Millianaires continued their tradition of attending the Maundy Thursday morning service followed by a luncheon. This year's luncheon was held at the Clubhouse Grill in Leisure World, a new venue for us as the Golden Bull, where we previously celebrated, has closed. We had an excellent turnout of 32 people and the food was delicious (and there was a lot of it!) Our next meeting will be on May 4 in the chapel. Our nomination committee will report in June on the nominees for our year that begins in September. Special thanks to Marguerite Eimer and Paul Harris for locating the Clubhouse Grill for our luncheon, and we happily report the Bill and Versella Shelton returned safely from their trip to Australia and New Zealand.

It was good to be back in church on Sandy Mach 26 after a 5-week vacation. I am very thankful for your cards and prayers while I had the knee surgery and the recovery time at Wilson Health Care at

Asbury. A special thank you to Rev. Balderas for his presence at surgery time and the checking up on me at Wilson. The partial knee replacement went well and I'm walking around Asbury without my cane, steps and stairs are another matter, but I'm working on that. With a grateful heart to God for the miracle of healing..

 Lynn Allen

Dear Millian;
 This training that I went through was very difficult initially. I was very apprehensive and had to be in constant prayers for guidance from our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. I also pulled strength from our Stephen Ministers and leaders in my beloved Millian church. They held my hand and walked with me every step of the way and I can't thank them enough.

Twelve people made it through the entire course. We started with seventeen people. We have a few care receivers already. Some of the Stephen Ministers are church leaders. The ceremony was very nice, with the Bishop in attendance. Thank you for all your prayers and support. Warmest regards,
 Lily Boateng

MUSIC NOTES

First and foremost, I would like to thank God for allowing me to serve through Millian by leading in its worship and glorification of Jesus Christ and his sacrifice for us. It is always a profound pleasure to be able to celebrate the Messiah and process through which he saved the world of its sins. Last week we had a two successful Resurrection Sunday services that were only possible thanks to the teamwork that goes on in Millian. This is a church that likes to see things happen.

I want to extend my gratitude to all the members of Millian and Staff that were involved in the planning and execution of our Holy Week celebration.

Particularly, there are two people, one member and one staff, that stood out. My sincerest thanks goes out to Carolyn Goldman for her generous monetary donation. Thanks to that, I was able to gather musicians in order to augment our worship experience throughout Holy Week and Easter's 10:00am service. As for our 6:00am sunrise service, Alexis Batista was an essential part in making that happen. Thanks to him, through his initiative and leadership, we were able to have music and places to sit out in the lawn in order to enjoy that beautiful sunrise and meditation.

I am also inclined to recognize the choir and bell ringers for their dedication and hard work these past couple of months. It's been a joy to work with them by making music that exalts God's name. I hope to continue making music with each and every single member still present, even with our new upcoming rehearsal schedule.

Last, but not least, I want to recognize Pastor Miguel Balderas and his assistant, Linda Canelas, for working in concert with me in order to ensure that the music done in Millian is for the honor and glory of God. It's been a great start to a new chapter and I look forward to what God will have in store for us through the rest of this year.

Interim Music Director

MARGARET JACKSON

Margaret Jackson is excited to be joining the Millian community and is looking forward to an opportunity to continue the phenomenal work which has occurred at the preschool over the past decades. Margaret was raised in the Methodist church and knows that her background, faith and experience will support her work as Preschool Director.

Margaret's experience includes working in education for over 20 years. She spent the majority of this time focusing specifically on Early Childhood Education and preschools. Her work has included serving as Head of a School and directing various preschool programs.

Margaret has a Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology from Dartmouth College and a Master's Degree in Education and Counseling from American University. In addition, she has various childcare certifications including the Preschool Director Certification from Maryland State Department of Education (MSDE).

When not working, Margaret spends a lot of time volunteering throughout the community. In 2010 she started the nonprofit RJ Smiles, Inc. as a legacy to her son. This nonprofit focuses on creating smiles and offering support to individuals and families throughout the community. RJ Smiles works to offer individuals in transition the hope, support and resources needed to keep moving forward. Margaret also spends much of her time traveling and has visited and lived in numerous countries throughout the world. Some of her favorite countries include France, Tanzania and Colombia. She is excited to be able to share her faith, passion for education, love of various cultures and commitment for serving others with the Millian community.

SERVING IN THE MILITARY OVERSEAS:¡JESÚS ESTÁ VIVO!

Hemos celebrado el sacrificio de nuestro Señor Jesucristo en la cruz, y todo por nuestras culpas, pero también de manera conjunta la victoria sobre la muerte con su resurrección. La salvación de todo el mundo fue lograda en la cruz y confirmada en la resurrección de nuestro Señor Jesucristo.

La buena nueva es que Jesús camina con nosotros y estamos invitados a celebrar en todo tiempo y en toda circunstancia. Por eso mis hermanos y hermanas de esta gran familia en Millian Memorial, les invito para que celebremos la jornada en que Dios nos está guiando.

1. Gracias a Dios por todas las personas involucradas en la celebración de la Semana Santa, mi staff siempre tan comprometidas, pero de manera especial el trabajo realizado por Roberto Villeda, que a pesar del corto tiempo se desempeñó genialmente. Gracias a Dios por una gran celebración.

2. Tenemos nuevo director en nuestro Preescolar en la persona de Margaret Jackson, por este medio le damos la más cordial bienvenida al equipo de trabajo en Millian Memorial, UMC. Tendremos oportunidad de darle la bienvenida pronto, y de la misma manera agradecer el excelente trabajo que Emma Hintz realizo con nosotros el tiempo que trabajamos juntos.

3. También hemos de celebrar que tenemos Nuestro Plan Estratégico, que incluye una nueva visión y misión. Así que hermanos y hermanas, la mejor manera de celebrar este gran logro es orar permanentemente para que podamos trabajar juntos en este esfuerzo.

4. Precisamente acorde a este Plan Estratégico:

A. Ustedes puede checar nuestra nueva página web, que sigue en proceso de construcción, pero ahí pueden consultar los calendarios (2) que usamos en la iglesia, así como una copia del Plan Estratégico.

B. Después de un largo proceso, ha llegado el momento que nos movamos de tres cultos que actualmente tenemos a solo tener dos, uno en ingles a las 10:00 de la mañana y el otro en español a las 12:30. Hace dos años comenzamos primero con un solo culto el primer domingo de mes donde los tres servicios nos reunimos a adorar a Dios. El año pasado amplíé esta experiencia a los cultos especiales y días festivos para que todos celebrá-ramos juntos. A partir del domingo 18 de junio comenzaremos oficialmente con estos dos cultos (uno en inglés y otro en español). Precisamente para estar listos para esta transición que comenzamos hace dos años he solicitado a Educación Cristiana y el equipo de Escuela Dominical para que trabajemos juntos en encontrar el camino para mantener la asistencia que actualmente tenemos los Domingos (20-25 niños/as)

Mis hermanos y hermanas de la gran familia en Millian Memorial UMC, esto es solo una pequeña prueba de todo lo que Dios está haciendo con nosotros, una prueba inequívoca de que Jesús vive y camina entre nosotros.

Por ultimo les invito a que en esta jornada en que Jesús Camina con nosotros y nos alegramos en todo, oremos especialmente por la situación de la Iglesia Metodista Unida, que es la Iglesia de nuestro Señor, para que su voluntad que es perfecta se cumpla.

Sigamos caminando juntos en esta jornada, donde la presencia de nuestro Seno r Jesucristo es real, el poder del Espíritu Santo nos guía, y el amor de Dios es incuestionable.

Su pastor que les ama entrañablemente!

Rev. Dr. Miguel Balderas
